Mr Justin Gamblin	Niagara, Tanfield Lane
Mrs Jenny Hollis	12 Buddens Road
Mr Neil Jackson	115 Knowle Avenue, Knowle
Mr Michael Sadler-Forster	Blanton House, Bridge Street

Three councillors have retired after considerable service to the Parish Council. Jenny Mallett has served for 10 years including time as Council Chairman and as both Planning and Water Meadows Committee Chairman. Morgan O'Connell served for nine years including time as Council Chairman and as Chairman of the General Purposes Committee. Martin Coles has served for four years working on the Planning Committee.

Thank you very much for your valued input, it is greatly appreciated and we will miss you!

Speed limit changes for School Road

Plans are being progressed to reduce the speed limit on School Road to 30mph, new white lining for the road will be carried out shortly in preparation for the changes.

Wickham Festival 2nd – 5th August

The Parish Council is sponsoring free entry to the Festival for all residents of Wickham Parish on Friday 3rd August – more details will follow. The Parish Council is working in partnership with the Festival organiser to make this happen. See the Festival website for the line up. Don't miss it!

Yellow Lines

The Parish Council has requested Winchester City Council considers yellow lines for parts of Buddens Road, Tanfield Park, Wickham Croft, Mill Lane and Manor Close to improve road safety for residents.

Previous proposals for Mill Lane have been extended to include the entrance to Dickson Park

The proposals are available to view on our website. Copies can also be made for residents on request.

There will be a lengthy consultation period before any decisions are made.

Litter picking

There are a number of local people who very kindly collect litter helping to keep the village and the Water Meadows tidy. It is greatly appreciated and is really making a difference.

Litter picking equipment can be supplied if you would like to assist!
