

Site Number	Summary	Period	Record Type	Parish
17823	(1) Part of a lava stone quern was found associated with 14th century pottery (B) (No more information available, whereabouts unknown, 1.8.1990 REB)	Medieval	FINDSPOT	Wickham
17824	(1) A 14th century pottery sherd was found with a fragment of a quern stone (A). (No more information available whereabouts unknown, 1.8.1990 REB)	Medieval	FINDSPOT	Wickham
18085	(1) A light scatter of probably roman brick and tile were found (1955).	Roman	FINDSPOT	Wickham
19358	(1)3 inch (0.76cm) long amber coloured flint fabricator with blunting retouch along one side and at one end. Recovered from 50 yards (45.72m) east of ...	Early Bronze Age	FINDSPOT	Wickham
19359	(1)A truncated pit with Roman tile fragments (B) and early Medieval pottery (SU50NW31) unearthed during topsoil removal on the M27 near Woodside Farm.	Roman	MONUMENT	Wickham
19387	(1)10th/11th century potsherds recovered from pit (SU50NW30A) unearthed during topsoil removal on the M27 from near Woodside Farm.	Medieval	FINDSPOT	Wickham
20086	(1)Blades, flakes and core of Mesolithic date from here. Neolithic and Bronze Age flint also.	Early Mesolithic	FINDSPOT	Wickham
20087	(1)Blades, flakes and cores of Neolithic date from here. Mesolithic and Bronze Age flint also.	Early Neolithic	FINDSPOT	Wickham
20088	(1)Blades, flakes and cores of Bronze Age date from here. Mesolithic and Neolithic flint also.	Early Bronze Age	FINDSPOT	Wickham
22467	(1) A bronze age flint scraper was found in a ploughed field in 1978. Now in Portsmouth City Museum; accession no. 1978/709.	Early Bronze Age	FINDSPOT	Wickham
22470	(1) The roman road through Wickham was unearthed in School Lane. It was 2ft below ground surface and was approx. 6 paces wide.	Roman	MONUMENT	Wickham
22471	(1) A pit containing roman pottery (C) was found on the line of the roman road at School Lane.	Roman	MONUMENT	Wickham
22474	Portions of a ditch system and roman pottery were found in 1967 when foundation trenches were dug in The Square, Wickham.	Roman	MONUMENT	Wickham
22476	(1) A quartzite, perforated macehead was found in about 1930 on Castle Farm, Wickham. (2) Now in the Draper Collection at Portsmouth City Museum.	Early Mesolithic	FINDSPOT	Wickham
22483	(1) A flint scraper was found in the 1920s. (1955).	Lower Palaeolithic	FINDSPOT	Wickham

22485	A scatter of Neolithic or Bronze Age worked flint was found on the surface, including a group of flint blades.	Early Neolithic	FINDSPOT	Wickham
22486	A scatter of Neolithic or Bronze Age worked flint was found during field walking.	Early Neolithic	FINDSPOT	Wickham
22493	(1) Manorial fish ponds, probably of 13th century date created by damming one of the streams before its entry into the River Meon.	Medieval	MONUMENT	Wickham
22495	(1) Romano-British pottery and tiles (B) were found during building operations at the A32 - A333 road junction.	Roman	FINDSPOT	Wickham
22496	(1) Romano-British pottery (A) and tiles (B) were found during building operations at the A32 - A33 road junction.	Roman	FINDSPOT	Wickham
22497	(1) Large quantities of early 1st century roman pottery was recovered from building trenches in 1967. Now in Winchester City Museum.	Roman	FINDSPOT	Wickham
22542	A scatter of Mesolithic flints was found.	Early Mesolithic	FINDSPOT	Wickham
22548	A small Neolithic handaxe found on the surface at Castle Farm.	Early Neolithic	FINDSPOT	Wickham
30893	1) A channel crossed by the conduit below Muses Copse could indicate an early mill site. The channel is 0.5m deep, 5-6m wide and 'u'-shaped in profi	Modern	MONUMENT	Wickham
30904	1) Medieval pottery scatter identified during field walking. No core areas.	Medieval	FINDSPOT	Wickham
30920	A group of earthworks relating to a system of medieval fish ponds.	Medieval	MONUMENT	Wickham
30921	Earthworks at this location were investigated by evaluation excavation, and found to be dumps from pond clearance and dredging.	Modern	MONUMENT	Wickham
30978	1) 1610 map of the East of Southampton suggests a building to the west of the present buildings.	Medieval	MONUMENT	Wickham
30979	1) Possible site of pond associated with medieval building thought to have existed on this site.	Medieval	MONUMENT	Wickham
30980	1) Linear work. SU52550975 to SU53390063_roughly parallel to public footpath between Swanwick and Whitley Lane. Approximately 10 metres across, variab	Modern	MONUMENT	Wickham
31713	1) Glebe Wall, Wickham. 17th-18th Century brickwork, possibly relating to the last phases of the manor house development. The wall is on the outer e	Post Medieval	MONUMENT	Wickham
31714	The medieval complex on this site was replaced in the mid 17th century by a brick structure with outbuildings and yards.	Post Medieval	MONUMENT	Wickham
31715	1.Polished Neolithic flint axe. Retouched blade	Early	FINDSPOT	Wickham

	- stray find. HCMJ ACC. No. A1981 95.	Neolithic
35423	(1) Possible woodland banks visible as linear features on air photographs. HCC AP ref: run34e181	Modern	MONUMENT	Wickham
37286	1) A scatter of flint was found during fieldwalking at Site/Area No 16/02. Limited activity occupation. Size 2.509 hectares.	Lower Palaeolithic	FINDSPOT	Wickham
37287	1) A surface scatter of flint was found during fieldwalking at Site/Area No 16/03, thought to indicate Long use/re-use. Size 12.218 hectares. Core are	Lower Palaeolithic	FINDSPOT	Wickham
37310	1) A bank and ditch reported by Mr L Campbell in woodland near Heytesbury Farm. (exact location not certain, but probably in Ravens Wood, north of Kno	Modern	MONUMENT	Wickham
38771	1) Fish pond mentioned in a valuation of Titchfield Abbey in 1381. See back up file for SU50NW 72 for further information.	Medieval	MONUMENT	Wickham